ROB EMPLÉ

Friday, September 14

6:30 - 9:00 PM

Rob plays a variety of cover songs - classic rock, old and new country, contemporary pop, and even a few oldies (relatively speaking).

Rob started performing during his UNH college days and continued through his junior year abroad, at the London School of Economics. While playing at Convent Gardens in London, Rob was “discovered” and asked to perform at “London’s Palace Theatre.” The highlight of that gig was that the contract letter was signed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, himself! After graduating college, Rob moved to Portland in 1986 and continued to perform at a handful of venues, until the early ‘90s. Rob then took a short hiatus to focus on his day job, family life and the kids busy schedules. Now, Rob plays privately and he recently performed at Gritty McDuff’s 30th anniversary party and looks forward to playing more frequently.

Come join the fun and enjoy a cup of hot coffee, hot tea or hot chocolate. This is a free family friendly event, all are welcome. Free will donations appreciated. FMI call 781-3413 or visit www.falmouthcongregationalchurch.org.
